

To: D'Andrea, Michael[DANDREA.MICHAEL@EPA.GOV]
From: BNA Highlights
Sent: Tue 2/11/2014 3:50:47 AM
Subject: Feb. 11 -- BNA, Inc. Daily Environment Report

Manage your email subscriptions

Email not displaying correctly? View publication in your browser.

Tuesday, February 11, 2014 · Number 28

The Bloomberg BNA Daily Environment Report is brought to you by EPA Libraries. Please note, these materials may be copyrighted and should not be forwarded outside of the U.S. EPA. If you have any questions or no longer wish to receive these messages, please contact Shari Clayman at clayman.shari@epa.gov, 202-566-2370.

NEWS

Air Pollution

EPA Approves Oklahoma Plan to Curb Regional Haze, Withdraws Federal Plan

The Environmental Protection Agency said Feb. 10 it has approved Oklahoma's plan to control regional haze pollution originating from two coal-fired power plants in the state, withdrawing a federal plan to reduce haze....

Climate Change

Con Edison to Calculate Economic Benefits Of Preparing Utility for Climate Change

Electric utility Con Edison will conduct an economic analysis to quantify the benefits of preparing its infrastructure for the impacts of climate change, a company official said Feb. 10....

Climate Change

EPA 'On Track' to Issue Greenhouse Gas Rule For Existing Power Plants, McCarthy Says

The Environmental Protection Agency is "on track" to issue its proposed carbon dioxide emissions standards for existing power plants in June 2015, and it will try to ensure "every sensitivity" to the jobs and communities...

Climate Change

Labor Leader Urges Infrastructure Investment To Protect Against Climate Change Impacts

Labor leaders are among those urging significant federal investments in water, energy and waste infrastructure as a way to promote job creation and protect from the impacts of climate change....

Drilling

View Recent Articles By:
Agencies
States
Courts
Internationa
Organizations
Federal
Statutes
Cases
Reports

Key Features
Special Reports
Regulations
Agendas
Congress
Calendar
Comments
Deadlines
PDF
Archive

Industry Seen Gaining From Presence
Of Oil-State Senators Atop Energy Committee

They are senior senators from two of the nation's top oil-producing states, longtime friends who are about to begin a partnership that has environmentalists uneasy and industry lobbyists counting on a shift in energy policy....

Drinking Water

GAO Report Says EPA Should Monitor
For More Than 30 Unregulated Contaminants

Congress should amend the Safe Drinking Water Act to allow the Environmental Protection Agency to monitor for more than 30 contaminants under certain circumstances, the Government Accountability Office said in a report released Feb. 10....

Drinking Water

Regulatory Gap Cited in Chemical Spill
Tainting Charleston, W.Va., Water Supply

The West Virginia storage facility that leaked a chemical that contaminated the water supply of 300,000 Charleston-area customers shouldn't have been built upstream from a treatment plant, a federal investigator said....

Drinking Water

Suit Claims 'Collective Dereliction' of Duty
By West Virginia Agencies in Elk River Spill

West Virginia agencies charged with safeguarding public health committed "collective dereliction" of duty by failing to prevent the Elk River chemical spill, according to a lawsuit filed on behalf of affected citizens (Covenant...

Energy

Commitment to Low-Carbon Policies Needed
To Promote Nuclear Reactors: DOE Official

The Department of Energy envisions a fleet of small nuclear reactors replacing retiring coal-fired power plants over the next two to three decades, but it will require a strong national commitment to low carbon and clean energy policies to...

Energy

Energy Department Finalizes Efficiency
Standards for Metal Halide Lamp Fixtures

Metal halide light fixtures commonly used to light parking lots, as well as commercial and industrial buildings with high ceilings, will be required to be more energy efficient under a final rule published by the Energy Department Feb. 10 (79...

Mining

Industry, States Ask Appeals Court to Affirm
Ruling Against EPA Conductivity Guidance

The National Mining Association and the states of West Virginia and Kentucky urged a federal appeals court Feb. 10 to uphold a lower court's rejection of the Environmental Protection Agency's water conductivity guidance related...

Mining

Judge Transfers Parts of Case to Three Other Venues

A federal judge in Colorado has transferred to federal courts in Montana, New Mexico and Wyoming certain claims in a lawsuit filed by WildEarth Guardians against the Office of Surface Mining, Reclamation and Enforcement 9 (WildEarth Guardians...

Pesticides

EPA Proposes Registration of New Insecticide

The Environmental Protection Agency is proposing to register Venerate, a biological insecticide containing the new active ingredient heat-killed Burkholderia spp. strain A396, according to a draft biopesticides registration action...

Pipeline Safety

Consensus Safety Management System

Draft to Be Released Soon, Official Says

A draft industry consensus document on the development of safety management systems for oil and gas pipelines is expected to be released to the public soon, according to an official with the Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration...

Regulatory Policy

House Panel to Move Bill Requiring OMB

To Give Six-Month Notice for Pending Rules

A House committee plans to take up a bill Feb. 11 that would require the White House Office of Management and Budget to post details of Environmental Protection Agency and other rules at least six months before they are proposed or finalized....

Superfund

Settling Party's Insurer May Indemnify Another Party

Parties entering into a settlement are not obliged to explain why one party's insurers have agreed to make a payment on behalf of another settling party, the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California ruled Feb. 5, rejecting...

Toxic Substances

EU Chemicals Agency Recommends

Substances for Phaseout Under REACH

The European Chemicals Agency (ECHA) recommended Feb. 10 that the European Commission list five substances in Annex XIV of the REACH chemicals regulation, meaning that their use will be banned in the EU unless continued-use authorizations...

Water Pollution

Duke Energy Stops Coal Ash Leak,

Plans Long-Term Cleanup of River

The release of coal ash from a storage lagoon at Duke Energy's Dan River Steam Station near Eden, N.C., into the Dan River has been stopped, according to a spokeswoman for the utility....

Water Pollution

EPA Invites Wastewater Industry to Partner

On Methods to Modernize Permitting Process

The Environmental Protection Agency seeks to collaborate with the wastewater industry sector in seeking approaches to make the existing permitting process under the Clean Water Act National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System program...

Water Pollution

Rep. Capito Announces Bill to Require States

To Inspect Aboveground Chemical Tanks

Responding to a chemical spill upstream of a drinking water treatment plant in the Elk River in West Virginia, Rep. Shelley Moore Capito (R-W.Va.) announced Feb. 10 that she would introduce legislation to require states to establish inspection...

CALENDAR

LEGISLATIVE CALENDAR

PRESIDENT'S CALENDAR

REGULATORY AGENDA

Comment Deadlines

FEBRUARY 10 FEDERAL REGISTER

FEBRUARY 11 FEDERAL REGISTER

Daily Environment Report

Manage/Customize Your Email | Contact Us | Privacy Policy

Copyright © 2014 The Bureau of National Affairs, Inc. Use of this service is subject to terms and conditions of the license agreement with Bloomberg BNA. Unauthorized access or distribution is prohibited. "BNA" is a registered trademark of The Bureau of National Affairs, Inc. All other trademarks are property of their respective owners. All rights reserved.

